WHEREVER THERE'S A FIGHT

A HISTORY OF CIVIL LIBERTIES IN CALIFORNIA

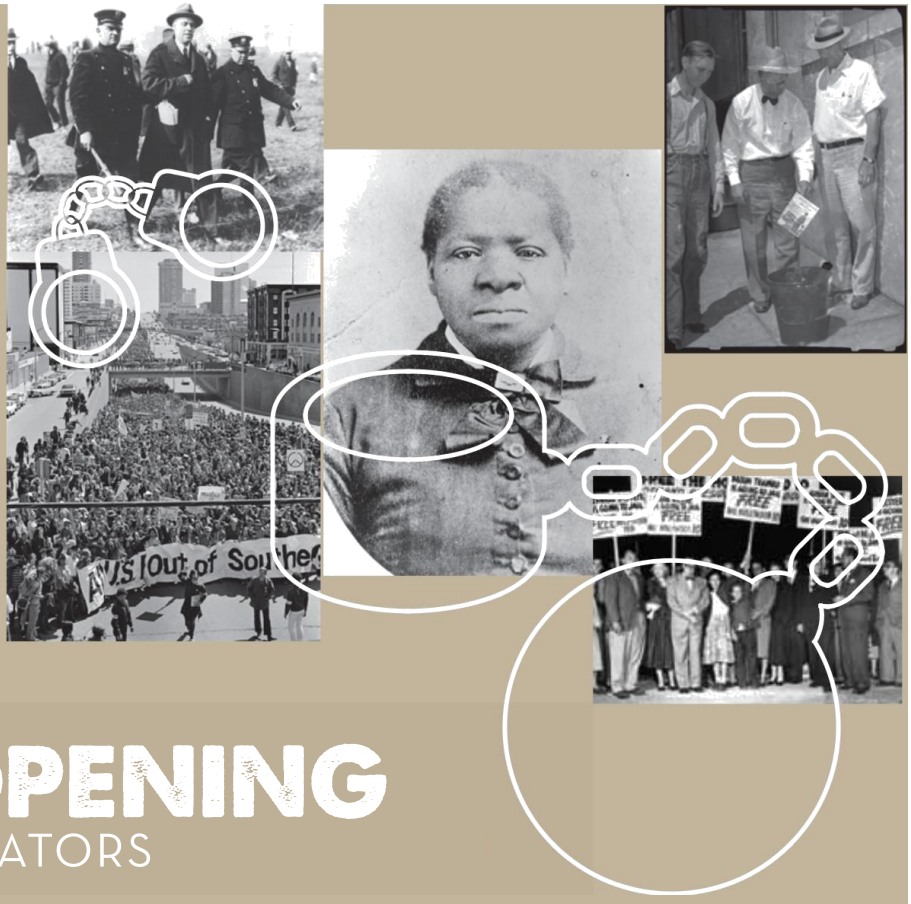

EXHIBIT OPENING

WITH CURATORS

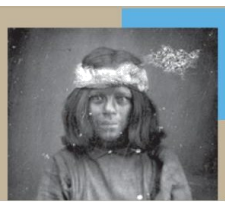
ELAINE ELINSON & STAN YOGI

Saturday, August 27 • 3:00-5:00pm

San Leandro Public Library • 300 Estudillo Avenue, San Leandro

Wherever There's A Fight captures the sweeping story of how freedom and equality have grown in California, from the gold rush right up to the precarious post-9/11 era. The authors of the book and curators of the exhibit, Elaine Elinson and Stan Yogi tell the stories of the brave individuals who stood up for their rights in the face of social hostility, physical violence, economic hardship, and political stonewalling.

Elinson and Yogi will discuss the account of the struggle to develop and protect civil rights in California, showing slides from political and social movements that occurred right here in the Bay Area. Following their talk they will be available for questions, book signings and discussion of the exhibit. Free admission and no prior registration is necessary.



Visit: tinyurl.com/whereverthereisafight

510-577-3971 • www.sanleandrolibrary.org