

San Leandro Main Library Teen Advisory Group

San Leandro Teens in grades 8 through 12 are invited to apply to the Teen Advisory Group (TAG) at the San Leandro Public Library. The mission of the TAG is to promote the San Leandro Public Library's services to teens including:

- Suggesting and volunteering at programs for teens
- Recommending materials (books, magazines, etc.) for the teen area
- Helping to promote library awareness in schools and the community

The TAG will usually meet once a month. All meetings will be held at the San Leandro Main Library located at 300 Estudillo Ave.

Qualifications to be a TAG member:

- Be a teen in grades 8 through 12 with a San Leandro Library Card.
- Be willing to commit to monthly TAG meetings.
- Be willing to commit to volunteering at two library events per year.
- Have an interest in planning and promoting the library's teen services.

Responsibilities of a TAG member:

- Attend TAG meetings and be an active participant
- Help promote participation in teen library programs
- Follow library rules
- Agree to the TAG Regulations
- Show respect to other TAG members, library staff, and library patrons
- Be enthusiastic about the library

If you want to be a part of the San Leandro Library Teen Advisory Group, please fill out the attached application form and return it to Loryn Aman at the Information or Children's desks of the San Leandro Main Library, 300 Estudillo Ave., San Leandro, CA 94577.
