

2009 Stimulus

Online Resources

Congressional Budget Office: Stimulus Proposals	This site offers publications about the economic stimulus proposals, including the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009 (AARA). It provides cost estimates, macroeconomic impact assessments, letters, and testimony before Congress. Current publications go back to January 2008. www.cbo.gov/publications/collections/collections.cfm?collect=12
Federal Business Opportunities	A site where vendors and government buyers can post, search, monitor, and retrieve opportunities solicited by the entire federal contracting community. www.fbo.gov/
FinancialStability.gov	As of today, this site is still a work in progress, but offers an assortment of links to various government plans and resources enacted in response to the current financial downturn. financialstability.gov/
Fiscal 2010 Budget of the United States Government	President Obama's proposed budget (with fact sheets) and web links to previous federal budgets. www.whitehouse.gov/omb/budget_fy2009_default/
Grants.gov	Find and apply for federal government grants including those that are part of the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act (ARRA). www.grants.gov
IRS Information Related to the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009	This IRS page highlights key aspects of the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009 (AARA) of interest to taxpayers and employers, including the Making Work Pay tax credit, Economic Recovery Payment, deductions for new vehicle purchases, expansion of first-time homebuyer credit, and COBRA premium subsidies. www.irs.gov/newsroom/article/0,,id=204335,00.html
Open CRS	Congressional Research Reports (CRS) for the People offers a number of free reports on the stimulus. Use the search term "economic stimulus" for a full listing. www.opencrs.com/
Recovery.gov	Recovery.gov is a website that will allow taxpayers to figure out where the money from the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act (AARA) is going: to which states, to which congressional districts, even to which Federal contractors. The information will be displayed visually in maps, charts, and graphics. www.recovery.gov/
State Economic Stimulus Plans	This chart, from 2009, shows U.S. state-level stimulus plans proposed in response to the current economic recession. The table includes a description of each stimulus plan (many for infrastructure improvements), and where available, the proposed spending amount. www.ncsl.org/programs/fiscal/stimulusplans.htm
StimulusWatch.org	StimulusWatch.org was built to help the new administration keep its pledge to invest stimulus money smartly, and to hold public officials accountable for the taxpayer money they spend. Learn more by reading the FAQs. www.stimuluswatch.org/

List of federal agencies and the webpage that gives information about their participation in the Recovery Act.

Agency Name	Recovery Webpage Address
Agency for International Development (USAID)	www.usaid.gov/recovery/
Corporation for National and Community Service (CNCS)	www.nationalservice.gov/about/recovery/
Dept. of Agriculture (USDA)	www.usda.gov/wps/portal/?navid=USDA_ARRA
Dept. of Commerce (DOC)	www.commerce.gov/Recovery/
Dept. of Defense (DOD)	www.defenselink.mil/recovery/
Dept. of Education (ED)	www.ed.gov/policy/gen/leg/recovery/index.html
Dept. of Energy (DOE)	www.energy.gov/recovery/
Dept. of Health and Human Services (HHS)	www.hhs.gov/recovery/
Dept. of Homeland Security (DHS)	www.dhs.gov/xopnbiz/recovery.shtm
Dept. of Housing and Urban Development (HUD)	www.hud.gov/recovery/
Dept. of Justice (DOJ)	www.usdoj.gov/recovery/
Dept. of Labor (DOL)	http://www.dol.gov/recovery/
Dept. of State (DOS)	www.state.gov/recovery/
Dept. of the Interior (DOI)	www.doi.gov/recovery/
Dept. of Transportation (DOT)	www.dot.gov/recovery/
Dept. of Treasury (TREAS)	http://www.treas.gov/recovery/
Dept. of Veteran Affairs (VA)	www.va.gov/recovery/
Environmental Protection Agency (EPA)	www.epa.gov/recovery/
General Services Administration (GSA)	www.gsa.gov/recovery/
National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA)	www.nasa.gov/recovery/
National Endowment for the Arts (NEA)	www.nea.gov/recovery/
National Science Foundation (NSF)	www.nsf.gov/recovery/
Small Business Administration (SBA)	www.sba.gov/recovery/
Smithsonian Institution (SI)	www.si.edu/recovery/
Social Security Administration (SSA)	www.si.edu/recovery/